

David Swanson will speak and lead a discussion on the topic of “Lifting the Shadow of War”

February 25, 2012

2:00 - 4:00 p.m.

Hilton Head Library, 11 Beach City Road

Admission is free.

Hilton Head for Peace, Tel. 603-264-6102

Swanson will sign his books: Daybreak (2009), War Is A Lie (2010), When the World Outlawed War (2011), and The Military Industrial Complex at 50 (2012).

Swanson helped plan the nonviolent occupation of Freedom Plaza in Washington, DC, that began October 6, 2011. Swanson blogs at <http://davidswanson.org> and <http://warisacrime.org>

“David Swanson is a truth-teller and witness-bearer whose voice and action warrant our attention.” —Cornel West, author.

“The world needs more true advocates of democracy like David Swanson!” —Thom Hartmann, radio host.

“David Swanson will be remembered and well recognized as the citizen who held up a lamp in the darkness and cried, as did good Tom Paine: ‘We have it in our power to begin the world over again.’” —John Nichols, columnist, The Nation.

“David Swanson predicates his belief that nonviolence can change the world on careful research and historical analysis.” —Kathy Kelly, Voices for Creative Nonviolence.

“David Swanson’s War Is A Lie may be the most comprehensive antiwar statement available in the English language.” —Kevin Young, Znet.

“Our times cry out for a smart, witty and courageous Populist who hasn’t forgotten how to play offense. Luckily we have David Swanson.” —Mike Ferner, President of Veterans For Peace.

“David Swanson, who has been a one-man wonder leading the charge for accountability, writes a compelling narrative that inspires not just outrage, but ACTION.” —Medea Benjamin, Code Pink and Global Exchange.

“David Swanson despises war and lying, and unmasks them both with rare intelligence. I learn something new on every page.” —Jeff Cohen, founder of FAIR.

“David Swanson’s book is a masterful exposure of the emergence of a monarch-like president coupled with an effete, irresponsible, and constitutionally ignorant Congress.” —Bruce Fein, former Associate Deputy Attorney General.

“David Swanson has written a fascinating account of how peace once became the law of the land. It is particularly pertinent in the era of the Endless War, by giving encouragement and suggestions of a path forward to those who want to give peace a chance.” —Liz Holtzman, former member of the U.S. Congress.

“Swanson’s book is far more uplifting and inspiring than virtually any other book in its genre.” —Glenn Greenwald, Salon.com.