

WAR IS A LIE is a thorough refutation of every major argument used to justify wars, drawing on evidence from numerous past wars, with a focus on those wars that have been most widely defended as just and good. This is a handbook of sorts, a manual to be used in debunking future lies before future wars have a chance to begin.

"David Swanson's War Is A Lie (Charlottesville, VA, 2010) may be the most comprehensive antiwar statement available in the English language."
— Kevin Young, ZNet

"David Swanson is an antidote to the toxins of complacency and evasion. He insists on rousing the sleepwalkers, confronting the deadly prevaricators and shining a bright light on possibilities for a truly better world."
— Norman Solomon, author of War Made Easy: How Presidents and Pundits Keep Spinning Us to Death.

David Swanson & Sandy Davies
for a memorable afternoon of eye-opening discussions and book signings.

Nicolas "Sandy" Davies has written about America's invasion and occupation of Iraq in articles published throughout the alternative and international media, from Peace Review to Z Magazine to Middle East Online. Now Blood On Our Hands: the American Invasion and Destruction of Iraq brings his work together in what former CIA Analyst Ray McGovern calls "the best account so far of the Iraq War".

Blood On Our Hands exposes the reality of illegal invasion, hostile military occupation and popular resistance that has been obscured by military propaganda and the echo chamber of the American corporate media. Davies makes the case that senior American officials and military officers are guilty of serious crimes, from the "supreme international crime" of aggression to systematic and deliberate violations of the Geneva Conventions throughout the occupation. The preface was written by Benjamin Ferencz, a Chief Prosecutor at Nuremberg and the founding father of the International Criminal Court at The Hague."
